COMPENSATION:

Students are extremely busy and often will not consider working for free. Serious requests often require compensation for work performed. This gesture demonstrated your value toward art and design.

SUPPORT THE ART DEPARTMENT WITH A DONATION TO THE EMPHASIS OF YOUR CHOICE OR ART GENERAL FUND.

Federal guidelines require that internships are paid with very limited exceptions. Student artist and designers are professionals in training and a valuable resource to you and your organization. The Art department welcomes opportunities that support the department's educational goals, places value on art and design, and provide professional growth.

Forms not filled out completely will not be considered.

Submitting this request form does not guarantee services or student interest.
