2023 AY Chalmer Davee Library Instruction Assessment Results

Total instruction sessions: 82

Total instruction sessions during fall semester: 41

Total instruction sessions during spring semester: 40

The number of librarians providing the instruction: 5

Total minutes of instruction: 4320

Students instructed: 1570*

*approximate amount
Student Survey Response:
After attending this library instruction session, I feel:

98% of students felt somewhat or a lot more aware of resources available to them through the Chalmer Davee Library after a library instruction session.

Student Survey Response:
After attending this library instruction session, I feel:

97% of students felt somewhat or a lot more comfortable finding information using library resources after a library instruction session.
Student Survey Response:
After attending this library instruction session, I feel:

- 1 student felt less confident in their ability to critically evaluate information.
- 43 students felt they do not feel any different about their ability to critically evaluate information.
- 233 students felt somewhat more confident in their ability to critically evaluate information.
- 499 students felt a lot more confident in their ability to critically evaluate information.
- 90 students felt critically evaluating information was not covered in the session.

94%* of students felt somewhat or a lot more confident in their ability to critically evaluate information after a library instruction session
*when applicable

Student Survey Response:
I believe what I learned in this library instruction session:

- 0% of students felt the information will not be useful for future class assignments and projects.
- 2% of students are unsure if it will be helpful for future class assignments and projects.
- 25% of students felt the information will be somewhat useful for future class assignments and projects.
- 74% of students felt the information will be very useful for future class assignments and projects.

99% of students felt that the information covered in the library instruction session will be somewhat or very useful for future class assignments and projects.