

CAFES Internship Program Bulletin

Door County, Sturgeon Bay, WI; Invasive Species Intern

Description: The seasonal field-based position supports the County's invasive species prevention and control initiatives by implementing chemical and mechanical control methods, public outreach, and ecological monitoring. Under the guidance of SWCD staff, the LTE Conservationist contributes to countywide environmental stewardship through field data collection, direct control measures, and community engagement on private and public lands.

Qualifications: Majoring in Environmental Science, Conservation, or related degree. Valid driver's license. Demonstrated ability to recognize invasive species common to Door County. Ability to work outdoors.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

779

City of Plymouth, MN; Water Resources Intern

Description: The Water Resources Intern will provide exceptional customer service to internal and external customers. Perform visual inspection of MS4 outfalls and storm water ponds and record data. Update GIS database and the map of the city's storm sewer conveyance and treatment system. Provide erosion control inspections of active construction sites to confirm compliance with city code. Assist facilitation of educational activities with various community organizations. Manage vegetation and use storm water best management practices for shoreline restoration, rain garden maintenance, buffer establishment and maintenance, wetland restoration and others.

Qualifications: Majoring in Environmental Science, Water Resources, Environmental Engineering, or related field. A valid driver's license. Previous experience with GIS software & GPS data collection is preferred.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

780

The City of Racine, WI; Research Assistant - Intern

Description: The Research Assistant will ensure the sustainability of coastal and inland water resources as well as reducing public health risk associated with waterborne illness in the context of recreation through the collection of data on physical attributes, environmental conditions and potential pollution sources capable of adversely impacting water quality, including municipal infrastructure, avian populations, algal blooms and hydro-meteorological conditions. Delivery of annual regulatory monitoring data and beach sanitary survey reports to the WDNR and/or USEPA.

Qualifications: Majoring in Conservation, Environmental Science, Environmental Engineering or related field. Valid driver's license and reliable transportation. Proficient use of Microsoft Office Suite and Adobe Acrobat. Strong organizational & time management skills. Detail oriented.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: May 13, 2026

781

Cormorant Lakes Watershed District, Pelican Rapids or Lake Park, MN; Watershed Intern

Description: The Cormorant Lakes Watershed District is seeking a motivated, detail-oriented individual to support the District's efforts in protecting and improving local water resources. This part-time position will oversee the District's permitting system, conduct field and lake inspections, work directly with property owners, and assist with project management and implementation of watershed initiatives.

Qualifications: Majoring in Environmental Science, Conservation, or related field. Knowledge of watershed management practices. Strong communication and interpersonal skills. Ability to work independently.

Application: Submit CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: May 13, 2026

782

Jay C. Hormel Nature Center, Austin, MN; Teacher Naturalist Intern (Full Year Paid Internship)

Description: The Teacher Naturalist Intern will teach environmental, conservation, and outdoor education to all ages. The intern will work most often with children in preschool grades through 8th grade. Teach in a variety of learning environments rain or shine, including the Nature Center and surrounding property, the Sola Fide Observatory, and offsite trips. Write and deliver curriculum for two summer classes. Help care for and maintain the Nature Center's gardens landscaped spaces. Handle, feed, and care for all critters. Maintain the Nature Center's social media.

Qualifications: Majoring in Ag Education, Environmental Education, or related field. Have good written and oral communication skills. Be able to manage multiple projects while maintaining daily tasks.

Application: Submit CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: May 29, 2026

783

Norfolk Botanical Garden, Norfolk, VA; Butterfly House Intern

Description: Norfolk Botanical Garden is looking for a qualified intern to join their Adult Education team. The Adult Education department provides quality educational programs for our guests and seeks an intern who can assist with our Butterfly House activities and interpretation. This intern should be prepared to work in a customer service-based environment and will finish the internship having gained broad experience in various aspects of biological sciences, education, horticulture, communications, tourism and related fields.

Qualifications: Majoring in Horticulture or related field. Must be comfortable speaking to individuals and groups. Able to work outside in various weather conditions. Frequent bending, stooping, reaching and lifting up to 25 lbs. is required.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

784

Pondering Gardens LLC, River Falls, WI; Landscape Field Intern

Description: This is a great opportunity to work hands on and learn about the operations of a design/build landscape company with room for advancement. The Landscape Field Intern will have duties including competent operation of large and small equipment pertaining to landscape practices as well as manual labor for a variety of tasks. Assists in maintaining the professional appearance of company facilities and grounds.

Qualifications: Majoring in Horticulture, Landscape Design, or related field. Be dependable, honest and work safely & hard. Ability of manual labor and lifting up to 50 lbs.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

785

AMPI, Sanborn, IA; Dairy Manufacturing Intern

Description: The Dairy Manufacturing Intern will learn what it's like to supervise in a food manufacturing facility. The intern will have the opportunity to work on a project and give a presentation at the conclusion of the internship to share what was learned. The intern will follow, learn, and work with the leadership team to gain hands on experience.

Qualifications: Majoring in Food Science or related field. Ability to work collaboratively. Good communication skills.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

786

Michigan Milk Producers Association, Remus, MI; Quality Assurance Intern

Description: The Quality Assurance Intern will support the assigned project by conducting research, analysis, and reporting for the project. Collaborate with Quality Assurance, Operations and other plant team members. Assist in developing SOPs for various unit operations in the plant.

Qualifications: Majoring in Food Science, Animal Science or related degree. Good communication, writing and organizational skills. Ability to work independently and as part of a team. Proficient in Microsoft Office.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

787

Timac Agro, Springerton, IL & St. Louis, MI; Sales and Research Intern

Description: The Sales and Research Internship will provide students an experience in all aspects of research plot work and agronomy sales. The intern will perform leaf analysis, soil tests and other collecting data from research plots to evaluate product response. Assist the Regional Sales Manager with sales and development of Timac Agro branded products and more duties related to sales and research.

Qualifications: Majoring in Crop Science, Agronomy or related degree programs. Valid driver's license. Strong attention to detail. Customer service mindset. Ability to lift 50 lbs. Ability to work outside.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

788

ServiTech, Goodland, KS; Crop Service Intern

Description: The Crop Service Intern will gain hands-on experience with industry leaders as it relates to analyzing field data, interpreting results, and formulating recommendations through assisting Agronomists. Support precision ag products and services. Operation an ATV with GPS receivers and read field maps.

Qualifications: Majoring in Crop Science, Agronomy, or related degree. A valid driver's license. Strong organizational skills, critical thinking and problem-solving skills. Strong verbal and written communication skills.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

789

Lake of the Woods and Greenwoods, Decatur, MI; Riding Director - Intern

Description: The Riding Director works closely with the Program Director on planning and executing curriculum. In addition, they will help manage riding and animal care staff in planning, scheduling and instruction, and will evaluate staff performance. Responsible for maintaining an innovative, progressive curriculum, the riding director promotes and actively participates in camp activities, providing a safe and fun learning environment while serving as a positive role model for campers and staff.

Qualifications: Majoring in Animal Science, Equine Management, or related field. Must be at least 21 years of age and 5+ years equestrian and animal care experience. Previous leadership and supervisory experience.

Application: Submit the electronic CAFES Internship Form located in the Internship Forms Section:

<https://www.uwrf.edu/CAFES/Internships/>

Deadline: Open until filled

790